"Mother Love"—A Powerful Remembrancer of Mothers' Day

All the light the New Testament sheds upon the relationship of our Saviour to His Mother shows Him in this, as in all else, an example for our imitation. In the home at Nazareth "He was subject" unto His parents, and when dying on the Cross He commended His Mother to the care of the beloved Disciple, John. (See "Our Front Page," page 10.)

CHESTER (TORONTO)

Changes in Local Officers—Series of Meetings held by Commandant Campbell, very Profitable

Parents of Juniors Attend Special Meeting at 19—Two Seekers on Sunday

Recently we had our commissioning of local officers at Campbellton, N. B., when twenty-eight commissions were handed to different comrades. Corps Sergeant-Major Price, who has held that position for twenty-one years, is now our Young People's Sergeant-Major.

Already, under his leadership, the Company meetings show signs of advance. Brother Robert Warman is now Corps Sergeant-Major and Brother Wm. Young, Corps Secretary. Sister Mayne Duncan was commissioned Guard Leader, and under her direction the Guards are doing splendidly.

We have just finished a very profitable series of meetings held by Commandant Colin Campbell. The Commandant was stationed here about fifteen years ago. He met many old comrades and friends.

Saturday night's meetings resulted in one young man returning to God. The Holiness meeting on Sunday morning there were four seekers, and at night after a hard fight five more sought and found the Lord.

The Commandant led the prayer meeting on Monday night when nearly all the week-end converts were present and spoke.

On Tuesday night the Commandant gave a very interesting talk on "The Wide Work of the Salvation Army."

Prospects are bright for a splendid Self-Denial Campaign—Simon.

EARLSFORT (TORONTO)

Six Seek Salvation in Sunday Night Meeting—Candidates Conduct Special Service

Good services marked the launching of the Week of Prayer for Self-Denial at Earlsfort. On Saturday the Candidates conducted a splendid service showing a good deal of spirituality and bringing much blessing to the large crowd who gathered. A good number attended Keneo-Hill at the Holiness Meeting. The Hall was full. The Spirit of God came upon us in waves of power, and one sought the blessing of full Salvation.

During the afternoon service the Young People gave some information regarding the Salvation Army in Missionary lands. Brother and Sister Large from West Toronto were welcomed at the evening service. Ensign Aldridge of Winnipeg, spoke and after an address upon "The Need for a Vision" Ensign Parsons also came to the Mercy Seat.

SIMCOE

Our new Officers Ensign and Mrs. Strafford have now been with us for a week. Quite a crowd gathered at the Citadel on Thursday. Another large and hearty welcome. Their first Sunday with us was marked with great spiritual blessings. After a day of relaxing mind and body, a festal of God's Presence three knelt at the Mercy Seat. Week end night services were well attended and two more souls came out and found Peace.

Brother John Colwell has been appointed to the position of Y.P.S.M. and with the united cooperation of the Company Guards great things are expected for our Junior Corps.

On Monday, April 12th, a very pleasant evening was spent. An invitation was given to the parents of each Junior of the Corps, and a very good crowd assembled at 7.30. The Young People's Sergeant-Major spoke a few words to the parents in connection with the Junior work and asked them to continue to show their interest in it. Captain Thomas also spoke.

On Thursday afternoon a sale of the Holiness meeting in our Corps.

Brother Day (St. Stephen), and Brother Gibson (Cobalt), who sold 380 and 352 "Crys" respectively work was opened by Captain Thomas and Lieutenant Bobbitt. The Cadets' Band provided the music in the evening, which we appreciated very much. A very good crowd was present. Cadet Hempstead was auctioneer and the sum of $70 was realized to help us in our Corps.

The week-end meetings were conducted by our Local Officers. Great blessings were showered down upon us and two souls knelt at the Cross.

WOMEN CADETS

Hold Rousing Open-Air Meetings on Toronto Streets—One Seeker for Salvation

The open-air Meetings that the Women Cadets held on Monday evening April 19th, were of the real old fashioned kind.

As we formed our ring on the street the crowd gathered around and never dispersed until our meeting closed. The spirit of God worked upon the hearts of those present and some were moved to tears. One young man came out the following Sunday night and surrendered to God. He gave a beautiful testimony.

As an acknowledgment of their good will the people around gave a splendid collection amounting to $1000. As we knelt to pray, the invitation was given for souls, and one person sought full Salvation.

We then marched home triumphantly, much blessed in our own souls and realizing that we had accomplished something definite for God, also more determined to do more for Him in the future.—Cadet London.

Celebration of 35th Anniversary—Special Meetings at Well Attended

This Corps recently celebrated its 35th Anniversary, the meetings all day Sunday being conducted by Adjutant and Mrs. MacDonald from No. 1 Corps.

In the afternoon service there was a commissioning of Local Officers by Mrs. MacDonald. Bandsman Cameron was appointed Corps Treasurer. Bandsman W. Puttick, Corps Secretary. Kelton, Senior Leader; Bandsman D. Godley, Deputy Bandmaster; Bandsman Phil Marshall, Band Sergeant; and Brother Alf Smith, Band Secretary.

On Monday afternoon there was a Holiness meeting, and at night there was an open-air with all the Bands of the city united. This was followed by a great Salvation meeting in the Citadel. These meetings, which were a great blessing, were led by Lieut-Colonel and Mrs. Belridge, assisted by Staff and Field Officers of the City.

On Tuesday night we had a banquet and Festival, about 250 people were present. The well-known Ladies. The Rev. Mr. Ross, (Presbyterian), presided at the Festival.

The Band made good progress. This year under the baton of Bandmaster R. H. Nelson, and we are looking forward to greater times in the summer. Captain and Mrs. Thomson are in charge.—D. K.

FAIRBANK (TORONTO)

We are having some good soul stirring times at Fairbank. Souls are being won for God, and attendances at the meetings are increasing. God is blessing our efforts and rewarding our faith. Several new branches of work have been launched. We hope to have another enlargement of Soldiers' work soon. Captain Harrison is still leading us on.—Correspondent.

HAMILTON II.

On Sunday morning, April 11th, Lieut-Colonel Hargrave and Major Macdonald led the morning service. The Colonel gave a splendid Holiness address. At night we had a splendid meeting. God spoke through Captain Johnson and conviction was felt very keenly. One young man came out the following Sunday night and surrendered to God. He gave a beautiful testimony.

LED THREE TO GOD

Ensign Snowden (Riverdale) was called upon over the phone recently and asked to visit a dying woman. He went through the snow storm that was raging, and was instrumental in leading her to Christ. Her husband and a sister who were present were also led to accept the Saviour.

Three Seekers on Sunday—Special Prayer Meetings for Success of Self-Denial Effort

The Week of Prayer was well started at Chester by a kneel drill on Sunday morning, April 18th, which was well attended. The meetings all day were of great help, the night service being conducted by Mr. Dunbar. His address was listened to with great interest by a large audience and the result was three seeking and finding Salvation.

During the week there were arranged cottage meetings at several places and these were well attended and much heart and soul were won. Also at the weekly practices of the Band, Songsters, Guards, and Scouts. Fifteen minutes at least were spent in prayer for the success of the Self-Denial effort.

QUEBEC

Captain Antoine Farewells—Visiting Officers Look in

On Sunday April 4th, a recruit was enrolled. Captain Antoine Farewells, of the 1st Canadian Mounted Rifles, on April 9th, thence to Switzerland, where she will spend a well earned tour of a few months.

An addition to the Ensign Guard dropped in the other day on Immigration business, and their comrades were kept praying, believing, toiling to the very end.

On Thursday April 15th, Colonel McMillan passed through east, as his way down East, after the ten minutes spent at the station with him was inspiring.

We are expecting Mrs. Lt-Colonel Moore the week-end. His Word, that we are in for some good times—Adjutant J. Beecroft.

WYCHWOOD (TORONTO)

The spring Campaign is in full swing at Wychwood. We have had some interesting services of late.

On Sunday, April 18th, Adjutant Green led the morning service. He gave a helpful Holiness talk. We had Staff-Captain and Mrs. White and Adjutant Sickle's in the afternoon as special and enjoyed their addresses very much.

The Open-Air Services were well attended. The Singers and Band rendered good service.—C. C.

NEWCASTLE, N.B.

Cadet M. Frost has farewelled from Newcastle, N.B. and Lieutenant Lovelace has been welcomed to assist Lieutenant Painter.

Cadet Frost was in Newcastle only a short time, during which she studied and obeyed the Master.—F. J.

MONTREAL IV.

On Sunday, April 11th, we welcomed our new Officers, Captain and Mrs. Courtenay. The meetings all day were very interesting, and a beautiful spirit was felt among the soldiers of the Corps.—Corps Correspondent.

MONCTON

The meetings on Sunday, April 18, were conducted by Adjutant Ellis worth. Good crowds attended as one seeker came to God.—C. J.

CONSTRAINING LOVE.

By Colonel S. L. Bregale

President Mahan, of Oberlin College, was perplexed by the variations, the fluctuations, the ups and downs in his religious life and the religious life of the people about him.

Struggling with this perplexity he joined into Professor Finney's study one day and said, "Professor, I wish I knew the secret of Paul's piety" and added, "I said, 'The love of Christ constraineth me.' Instantly the light for which he had sought burst upon him as he quoted those words, and he cried out, 'Oh, I see it!' and walked out of that room a transformed man, and from that day forth his religious life was ever upward, increasing, abounding, overflowing, because it throbbed and pulsed with the constraining love of Christ.

And this, my comrades, should be your secret and mine. Constrained by love! What an easy yoke, and what a light burden is this! Jacob served seven years for Rachel, and added, 'I will keep him but a few days for the love he had for her.'

Toiling to the End

Our blessed old General, now glorified, served his Lord and his fellow men for sixty-eight years with ever-increasing ardor and flaming zeal, constrained by the love of Christ. It kept him praying, believing, toiling to the very end.

And so it will any man who cultivates it who does not frustrate it. It will lead us to the very Master that our Master may be honoured and glorified, that His Kingdom may come and His will be done on earth as in Heaven.

It will lead us to study and think and meditate on the best way we can promote His interests.

It will lead us to labour largely and sacrifice freely, and always for His dear sake.

It will make us patient for our fellow men, because He has died for them and they are dear to Him, and we want to save them and win them to Himself.

It will make us diligent, patient, joyful students of His Word, that we may find out His will and do it, and find out all His ways to walk in them.

It will make us strong, 'for love is as strong as death.'

Power over Temptation

It will give us instant power over the tempter, for love to Christ will make us hate sin, however attractive or sweet its taste. It slew Him, and now that we love Him it is hateful to us, and wholly hateful.

It will make us self-worshipers. It will give us tact and skill and patience, and sympathy with the infirm, and it will give us pity and a great passion to turn men from sin to righteousness and holiness, and from Satan to God.

An Officer got filled with this love in one of my meetings, went back to his Corps (which was one of the hardest in America) and in a year's time, with ninety souls for Jesus. Hallelujah!

Here is the secret of joy and peace and victory: the love of Christ constraining us!

How shall we get it, do you ask? At His dear feet, in utter self-abandonment to Him, with simple, unquestioning, obedient faith. "Ask, and ye shall receive."

PERSONAL SELF-DENIAL

Is the Keynote of the Salvationist's Part in This Annual Effort

THE topic which will be uppermost in the minds of Salvation Soldiers just now will be the Self-Denial Effort, and no doubt others to join with us in this, and planning to secure their targets. What is your target?

Have you merely set yourself to raise so much money to help forward the work of the Salvation Army? If so, even if you more than reach it, you will have missed a very great deal which God means you to have.

Keep Purpose in View

If the devil can manage to do it he will so occupy your minds with the actual work of raising the money that the purpose for which it is raised will be lost sight of.

God only accepts and rewards the work which is built upon the foundation "that is laid, which is Jesus Christ." That is to say, only such labours as are a result of constraining love for Him.

Be very careful, therefore, in everything you do, to keep in view the object for which you are doing it. It is perfectly legitimate and right that you should enter into competition with others and, in a spirit of friendly rivalry, see who can do the best, but remember all the way through what it is you are doing, and for whose sake you are doing it.

It may help us to call to mind what the Self-Denial Effort is, and why we make it.

First and foremost it is a week, set apart each year, during which all Salvationists are expected to deny themselves of such things as it is possible for them to do without, in order that the money saved by so doing may be devoted to the

DOUBLED HIS GIFT

An Officer out collecting for Self-Denial was invited into the houses at which he called. "Here is my usual donation" said the gentlemen, who by the way had given the Officer a corresponding amount for several years.

"Your numbers" continued the gentleman "seem to keep very small in this district!"

"Yes, that is so," replied the Officer "but may I ask what number you would have on your church roll if you took all those who used strong drink or games, expected those left to wear a distinctive uniform, and permitted nobody who smoked to hold any office in the church?"

"Ah, that is a different matter," said the gentleman "you people do a lot of good work; you will allow me to double my gift!"

Both smiled, the Officer "allowed," and they bade each other "good-night."

A VAST FIELD

It is overwhelming to think of the vastness of the harvest field when compared with the indolence, indifference, and unwillingness on the part of most so-called Christians to become, even in a moderate degree, labourers in the same.

As we are so general to the task of helping to save the lost is the man who believes that Jesus is the Son of God? No, no, no, indeed, will not whole-heartedly in Salvation warfare!

SOLDIERS' CARTRIDGES

Their Meaning and Use

Mention is frequently made in our columns of Cartridges, and every Salvationist understands perfectly well what they are and what purpose they serve. But many of our readers may have been a little mystified by the allusion.

The term, like all other Salvation Army appellations, is of course, a military one, and the command, "Fire your Cartridge," is one of the fixed phrases that assail the ears of Salvationists every week-end.

Weekly Contribution

In brief, the Soldier's Cartridge is his weekly personal contribution to the military work of the Corps to which he belongs. He often gives much more, for collections are made at all Meetings, and special objects make further and frequent demands upon his purse; but the Cartridge represents his guaranteed weekly offering towards the upkeep of the Corps. It is enclosed in a neat little envelope. Whether full or empty, the Cartridge envelope is expected to be handed in every week.

The Cartridge is the first evidence of Soldierliness. No person can be entitled to the name of Soldier unless he has been entered in the Cartridge book for at least four weeks.

But, above all, be sure and see that your target includes the securing of blessing for your own soul and the distributing to others of the waters of grace which have been bestowed upon you. The individual who calls for a donation but whose business begins and finishes with money-getting, will, at the best, obtain the cash and nothing more, while those who before they start out determine to use every opportunity to bringing blessing to those collected from, and at the same time secure to their own souls precious satisfaction and the laying up of treasure in Heaven.—R.S.

Opening the Envelopes

Every week, at a stated time, the Corps Officer, the Corps Secretary, and the Corps Treasurer meet together for the purpose of opening the Cartridges and entering the amounts in the book. On the outside of the envelope there is a number; this agrees with a number in the Cartridge book, against which stands the name and address of the Soldier. The opening of the envelopes is regarded as a very important procedure, and one stringent section of the Regulations requires that no contribution be given by one person alone, a safeguard that, of course, establishes the strictest accountability.

Many faithful Soldiers would as soon think of omitting to say their prayers as they would of not firing their Cartridge. The secret of self-denial are often revealed at the weekly opening of the envelopes, as every Corps Treasurer can testify. Numbers of Cartridges have been fired from death-bed, as our obituary columns frequently show. It is a fact that a few have been fired for long periods after the death of the Soldier, in fulfillment of some definitely-expressed death-bed wish.

SOUTH AMERICA

EVIDENCES OF THE ARMY'S PROGRESS—SOUP KITCHENS A GREAT BOON TO THE POOR

"When I arrived in Buenos Aires in 1905, there was in the city one Salvation Army Corps, one Outpost, and small Social Institutes for the poor," (says Adjutant J. C. Martin in an interview in the British "War Cry"). "When I left for South America, there were seven Salvation Army Corps in the city; one at Avellaneda just across the river; two large Social Institutions for men with Corps annexes, one large Home for Women, and, in the district of La Boca, an International Sailors' Rest, with a Corps annex and a small annex for the accommodation of women."

At Rosario (Sta. Fe) in 1905 there was one Corps and an Outpost. Today there are four City Corps and one Outpost, together with his splendid Outpost, together with a splendid Again at Monte Video, the capital of Uruguay, where there are two small Corps and a Sailors' Home, there are three City Corps, the Sailors' Home has been considerably enlarged, and there is an Industrial branch of the Social Work, with a Shelter for Men.

"These increases are typical and answer conclusively the question as to whether we are making progress, apart from the main work of the soul-saving, which is yielding increased results, an interesting feature of the Army's work in South America is the Soup Kitchens, which are set up year by year in many cities. The advent of the rainy season often creates great poverty among such casual outdoor labourers as the dock stevedores and longshoremen, and depots in various parts of the large towns are established to relieve the hunger of their families. In relief work the Army is always well to the fore.

"The Young People's work has developed considerably in recent years. Bands and Soldier Brigades are being formed and doing good service, Life-Saving Scouts and Guards Troops have been inaugurated, and generally speaking the Salvation Army has before it a bright future in South America."

AUSTRALIA

Fifty-one Cadets have just been awarded certificates for proficiency in first aid.

What is designated a "Big Four Campaign" is in progress. The object aimed at includes bands, Converts, Soldiers, Young People, and Congregations. The latest news to hand is to the effect that gratifying all-round advance is being made throughout the Commonwealth.

SWITZERLAND

During the Winter Campaign, spiritual awakenings have taken place in a number of notoriously hard Corps, congregations have increased, and notable captures have been made.

One hundred and fifty people sought Salvation in a winter campaign conducted by Lieut. Colonel and Mrs. Malan at Schaffhausen.

THE STORY OF YEN TZU

Brought up in the darkness of Heathenism her life was full of sorrow and hardship, till she heard of the love of Jesus Through the Salvation Army

SHE was only a Chinese baby girl, and when the father on his return from work in the fields discovered the sex of his first born, he was very angry, and demanded to know why his wife had come to bring what his wife had come to bring.

such a curse upon him. There was no rejoicing nor feasting—that goes with the birth of a boy. Poor little unwanted girl. No one cared for her but her mother, and she dared not show her love openly, lest it should anger her husband (writes Adjutant Gilliam in "The Victory").

Afraid of Father

As Yen Tzu began to grow and run about, she was always afraid of her father; she could not understand why he was consistently unkind to her. Consequently she knew the best thing to do was to keep out of his way, especially if he had been drinking. Later on a boy was born into the family. This time there was great rejoicing, a feast was prepared, and all the neighbours around came to share in the great joy. The one bright spot in Yen Tzu's childhood was her love for her little brother, and often, as he grew older and got into mischief, she would receive punishment without a murmur for misdeeds that he had done.

At six years of age Yen Tzu had to go to work in the fields with her mother. The father had become so fond of wine and gambling that he was rarely home, but spent his time at a neighbouring village with his companions. From morning till night, during the spring, summer and autumn, Yen Tzu had to work hard in the fields; she knew nothing of play or happy childhood. When about eight years of age her feet were bound, according to the custom of the country, and in their pinching pain; often she wanted to tear the bandages off, but dared not. Yen Tzu was a thoughtful child. At times when she stood away in herself, look up to the sky, and watch the sun or the stars, and would

No Happiness For Her

Yen Tzu's mother had often talked of play or happy childhood, and had told her that perhaps the gods would be kind to her and give her a good husband, and in their pilgrimages to the temple they had begged for this favour. Now the little girl learned that it was no use to plead; there was to be no happiness for her. She watched her father leave the house, then rushed indoors to her mother, who folded her in her arms, exclaiming, "Alas, my daughter, alas!" (To be continued)

VARIOUS ACTIVITIES OF CADETS—FRIENDS GIVE GENEROUS HELP

During the Training Session which has just closed the Cadets held 355 meetings attended by 27,000 people, 352 Young People's meetings attended by 14,000 children, 201 open-air meetings attended by 20,000 people, and nearly 1,500 souls to the Saviour; 23,000 visits were also made to public houses.

Sweden holds many warm friends of the Army. Donations of 1,000 and 5,000 kroner are reported, and the director of an instrument factory has given to the Cadets' Garrison a valuable piano. At Askersund, a friend has refurnished the Hall in oak, and provided new furnishings for the Officers' Quarters.

Writing of the Swedish "War Cry," a Free Church clergyman says, "Just had opportunity to read your 'War Cry.' Surprised you can give for that price so much good warming, and interesting matter and so many valuable places where it gets the circulation it deserves."

GOOD WORK OF ARMY OFFICER COMMENTED ON BY SWEDISH GENTLEMAN

Doctor Kandern, who has been making tours among the head-hunters in Celebes, writing in "Dagens Nyheter," a Swedish paper, says: "Since autumn, 1915, a Salvation Army Missionary Officer worked in Kotawati, a book could be written describing his unselfish work, unswerving zeal, and rare understanding of natives. He not only preached, but established Schools and brought to the young Kotawati a good portion of the culture. He has done very much for the improvement of hygiene, and also compiled a Dutch-Malay-Kotawati dictionary."

CZECHO-SLOVAKIA

SOLDIERS AND LOCAL OFFICERS ENROLLED

In the Lecture Hall of the Philosophical Faculty, Prague, used week by week for Salvation Army meetings, Commissioner Larsson recently read a letter from the Cadets' officers to the temple they had begged for this favour. Now the little girl learned that it was no use to plead; there was to be no happiness for her. She watched her father leave the house, then rushed indoors to her mother, who folded her in her arms, exclaiming, "Alas, my daughter, alas!" (To be continued)

At the close of the meeting the Cadets responded to the Commissioner's appeal. A man jumped over his seat, and rushing to the front, kissed the Commissioner on the cheek and found the peace of God he had obtained some little time previously. Interest in the Army work is increasing all over the Republic (writes Adjutant Gaunlett). The people are beginning to realize that the Salvation Army is not a sect in real religion, and herein lies the Army's great opportunity.

SPRINGDALE

Seven Soldiers Enrolled—Eight Seekers for Salvation—Life-Saving Guards Give Special Demonstration

On Easter Sunday morning a good crowd met at the Hall to prepare for the march which was three miles and back again, followed by knee drill.

The Holiness meeting which followed was indeed enjoyed by all. One hundred returned to the fold. At the close of the night meeting we had the joy of seeing five seekers at the Cross.

On Tuesday night Holiness meeting one comrade came forward for a deeper work of grace. On Wednesday night, April 7th, The Life-Saving Guards gave their first Demonstration after which syrup and cake was served. The Hall was packed and the sum of $25 was raised. The Guards did their best to make the evening an enjoyable one.

On Sunday, March 28th, the meetings were much enjoyed. In the afternoon seven Soldiers were enrolled.

On Friday night we had a blessed time and at the close of the service a loud shout. The Junior work is progressing—Guard Leader Peters and S. Critch.

GRAND FALLS

Young People's Hall to be Erected—Band Receives New Uniforms

Thirty-eight Soldiers were recently enrolled and more are ready. The Young People's work has outgrown the present building and so a new Hall is to be erected. Plans have been drawn for this, and the first lot of lumber is on order. When built this Hall will be fifty-five feet by thirty feet with two class-rooms and movable partitions.

The Band is keeping well up to date in work. The new uniforms and poodle recently arrived and added greatly to the smart appearance of the Bandmen. They are great workers in the prayer meetings.

Our Home League is getting ready for the annual sale of the proceeds of which will go towards the Young People's Hall. The Life-Saving Guards under the leadership of Sisters Mrs. Manuel, Mrs. Horwood and Mrs. Crook are making good progress. The campaign conducted by Commandant McElhinny was a real stimulus to us.

BONAVISTA

Twenty-Six Soldiers Enrolled—Five Seekers for Salvation

This Corps is progressing under the following list of Adjutant and Mrs. Tuck.

On Easter Sunday we had a blessed time. In the afternoon the Hall was filled to capacity and Adjutant Tuck enrolled twenty-six Soldiers. At night two souls came to the Mercy Seat.

We also had good times during the week and on Wednesday night the women sought Salvation. The Band is rendering good service.

The power of public testimony depends on intimacy with Jesus in secret.

TERRITORIAL NOTES

Colonel Martin, accompanied by Chancellor, visits Clark's Beach, Port-de-Grave, and Bay Roberts—Large Crowds attend the Meetings and Warmly Welcome the New Commandant

GOOD NEWS OF SOUL-SAVING FROM MANY OUTPOSTS

THE Territorial Commandant accompanied by Staff-Captain Thompson, paid a visit to Clark's Beach recently, but on arrival found both Captain and Mrs. Porter ill in bed. They were met at the station by Lieutenant W. Legge, the day school teacher, and taken to Brother and Sister Bussy's house for dinner.

There was very stormy and cold, but the Colonel, in company with Brother Bussy, went to visit a sick man and also a visit to Captain and Mrs. Porter.

Although the storm kept up we had a splendid crowd of people at the meeting at night, and the Colonel conducted a short after-meeting with the Soldiers and Converts.

Next day we drove to Port De Grave where Lieutenant Slute is stationed.

Commandant Sainsbury, the District Officer, drove over from Bay Roberts and said The Hall was filled long before the regular time and as the Colonel entered the whole audience arose and gave him a hearty welcome, clapping their hands vigorously.

Port De Grave, they tell us, is a very sunny place, and the land first landed, to be nearer the fishing ground, hence the reason for this settlement being so far out on the point of the peninsula.

The weekend was spent at Bay Roberts, the Saturday evening the welcome meeting of the Territorial Leader took place, a very large audience being present.

After the Chancellor had introduced the Colonel, Junior Sergeant-Major Mrs. Bussing spoke on behalf of the Young People, Envoys Moore on behalf of the Locals and Soldiers, and Commandant Sainsbury on behalf of the Corps and friends of the Army.

The Colonel was warmly greeted and in his own attractive style he suitably thanked all for the welcome given him, and settled down for a real spiritual gathering.

Any one who knows Bay Roberts can imagine what splendid crowds attended the meetings on Sunday, the day school teacher at Clark's Beach, the Colonel as he delivered his address.

Scores Sought Salvation and Sanctification During Special Campaign

On March 27th we had a visit from Commandant McElhinny. On Saturday night nineteen knelt at the Mercy Seat and confessed their sins. A great crowd turned out to kneel on Sunday morning. God came very near in the Holiness meeting, when two came forward for Sanctification. In the afternoon the Com-

NEW INSTRUMENTS

Presented to the St. John's I. Band by the Territorial Commandant

On Thursday evening, April 15, a very interesting service took place in the No. 1 Citadel at St. John's Nfld. After reading from God's Word Colonel Martin gave a short address before presenting the Bandmen with their instruments.

Bandmaster Horwood said that he was glad that early in life he had consecrated himself to God's service. "I think," he said "I can speak for the Bandmen and say that our motive was to play for the Glory of God. I might say too, that we have a wide field for work. It makes no difference what our ranks are, one of us has a part to play in the great Salvation Army."

The Colonel then presented the instruments to the Bandmen, twenty-two silver plated instruments and two drums.

When he then gave two splendid selections in which a collection was taken and the sum of $10.00 was received. A very small amount to be paid and we feel sure this will very soon be cleared off.—S. L. M.

PROMOTED TO GLORY

Sister Mrs. Fennemore, St. Anthony. Death has again visited this Corps and taken from the ranks one of our Soldiers in the person of Mrs. Fennemore. Her death was a great loss to the Corps and was a great loss to the Corps.

It was thought at first to be only a cold, but pneumonia set in and on Saturday, April 10th, she passed away. The writer visited her often and always found her happy and trusting in Jesus.

She assured us that all was well and she had no fear but was just waiting for the call.

The funeral service took place on Wednesday, 21st, and was attended by a very good crowd. It was conducted by Captain and Mrs. Ford, assisted by Rev. Mr. Martin (Methodist).

On the following Sunday night a memorial service was held which was very impressive. Mrs. Fennemore is missed from the Corps and from the Home League, of which she was Secretary. Our sympathy is with the husband and two children.—Mrs. Captain Forward.

Sister Mrs. John Morgan, Cape Breton.

Death has visited our Corps and taken from our midst Sister Mrs. Morgan. After a short illness she passed peacefully to her reward on April 15th. Mrs. Morgan has been a Soldier of this Corps for a number of years, also of New Aberdeen, and of the Home League.

We laid her to rest on Saturday, April 17th. The funeral service was conducted by Captain Peter. When called by the Captain she gave evidence that she was resigned to God's will and was going to be with Jesus. To the bereaved husband, family and friends we extend our deepest sympathy, and pray God's sustaining grace be sufficient to lighten their sorrow.—Lieutenant W. Legge.

THE WAR CRY

EDITORIAL NOTES

Mothers' Day

It is interesting to find that Mothers' Day, the modern revival of which is to the credit of our neighbours across the border, is in principle a very old English institution. "Mothering Sunday" being observed in mid-Lent, in medieval times, as a day when the people were to visit and care for parents, especially the female one, taking some little present.

The Reality of Hell

WE hear a great deal nowadays, alike from meat-mouthed professors who do not care to preach the reality of Hell, and from those who, with more, obvious reason, the wish is father to the thought, about the non-existence of hell.

Needy Mothers and Children

IT is more appropriate that the season which holds Mothers' Day should see the promised introduction of the Ontario Bill for a measure which will give pensions to needy mothers.

What Consolation?

OTHER people seem to think they have got rid of the terrors and pains of the abode of lost spirits—call it Purgatory, or the condition of souls, whether mental or physical, which is portrayed must be supposed to be the case. It has indeed been said that the language employed in the Bible with respect to it is to be taken figuratively. But even supposing this to be so, the condition of souls, whether mental or physical, which is portrayed must be supposed to be the case.

to $107,000, according to the scope of the law. This rich Province cannot refuse such a sum to the widows of the fallen in need.

The Prohibition Fight

IT is not to be expected that the interests involved in the Drink Traffic will allow Prohibition to complete its triumph without doing all they can to retard its progress.

At Sault Ste. Marie

Asked as to the Commissioner's movements he stated that Lieutenant-Colonel Aday and himself left Toronto by the night train on Wednesday following the gathering at Government House. The first call was at Sault Ste. Marie, where they were met by Adjutant Coy, the District Organizer for the Jubilee Self-Denial Campaign, and Captain Green, the Corps Officer.

Good Crowd Assembled

"Cheerful Mimes and Well-wishers" will also be visited by Ensign Chapman and party proceeded to North Bay, where a good, representative crowd was in attendance.

We regret that several errors crept into our report on Toronto 1, which appeared in our special Beloit-Denial number. Mrs. Colonel Spooner, it was stated, was promoted to Glory some years ago. This is not so we learn, for she is still waging a good Salvation warfare in India. Then Brigadier McLean and Major Goodwin were mentioned as coming out of No. 1. The Brigadier, we learn, came out of New Glasgow and the Major out of Kingston.
